

HOW TO USE IN EVERY MOMENT AS A GROUP STUDY

While In Every Moment is a devotional-memoir, reading and discussing it as a group provides an immediate setting for readers to remember their own stories of God's goodness and tell them to one another.

Length:

- Twelve weeks if readers read one entry per day.
- Six weeks if readers double up and read two per day.

Individual study:

- Read the assigned reflections before the group meeting.
- Study the related scriptures and reflect on the questions.
- Choose one of the prompts and prepare a story from your own life.

Group meeting:

- Read the scriptures mentioned.
- Discuss the characteristics or truths about God.
- Ask and answer the reflection questions.
- Tell your prepared stories. (Or assign different entries to each participant so that all characteristics of God are referenced).
- Decide how to record or share this story with someone of the next generation.
- Pray the weekly liturgy.
